TUCSON FILM & MUSIC FESTIVAL ANNOUNCES OPENING AND CENTERPIECE FILMS "LARGO" AND "THE SWEET LADY WITH THE NASTY VOICE"

Rock 'n' Roll Legend Wanda Jackson to Perform Live

Los Angeles, CA & Tucson, AZ – (September 16, 2009) -- The Tucson Film and Music Festival announced today that "Largo" will be the festival's Opening Night film, and "The Sweet Lady With the Nasty Voice" will be the Centerpiece selection for the 5th annual event taking place October 9-11, 2009. The festival, known for bringing compelling cinema and music to Tucson, boasts a line-up of all Arizona film premieres at this year's event. Wanda Jackson will also treat festival-goers to an exclusive live concert at PLUSH.

Largo

Directed by Mark Flanagan & Andrew Van Baal, and executive produced by Paul Thomas Anderson, "Largo" is a performance-driven look at the storied Hollywood nightclub that has showcased the many talented performers that appear in the film, including Aimee Mann, Michael Penn, Zach Galifianakis, Flight of the Conchords, Jon Brion, Andrew Bird, Grant-Lee Philips and many others.

Largo

Friday, Oct 9, 2009 at 7PM

The Loft Cinema, 3233 E Speedway Blvd. www.loftcinema.com

Tickets $5, $1 off for Loft members and students.

The Sweet Lady With The Nasty Voice

In the 1950s, Wanda Jackson kicked open the door for women in rock and roll, and empowered female rockers to be in control, to be sexy, and to write their own songs. The film takes you from the beginning of Jackson's legendary career at age 16 to the present day, where Jackson still tours nightly. Featuring never-before-seen footage of Jackson's concerts with rock icons Elvis Presley, Buddy Holly, Johnny Cash, and Jerry Lee Lewis. Directed by Vinnie Kralyevich.

*Special guest appearance by Wanda Jackson for a Q&A following the screening.

The Sweet Lady With The Nasty Voice

Saturday October 10, 2009 5:30pm
