Tucson Film & Music Festival Celebrates Closing Night at The Historic Rialto with Closing Night Film “Rock Prophecies” & TFMF After Dark: “Lost Dream”

Los Angeles, CA & Tucson, AZ -- (September 30, 2009) – The 5th annual Tucson Film & Music Festival (TFMF) is pleased to announce its closing night festivities. The very special evening will take place at The Rialto Theatre in downtown Tucson on Sunday, October 11, 2009. The evening commences at 7:30 pm with the TFMF Closing Night Film “Rock Prophecies” (AZ Premiere), John Chester’s feature-length documentary film exploring the amazing career of legendary rock ‘n’ roll photographer Robert M. Knight, as he quests to find the world’s next guitar legend. The evening continues at 9:30 pm with the new TFMF After Dark program: the Southwest Premiere of writer/director Asif Ahmed’s acclaimed “Lost Dream,” featuring Michael Welch (Twilight) and Shaun Sipos (Melrose Place 2009); the evening will also serve as a “cinematic” homecoming, as the film’s producer and University of Arizona alumni Mae Nekoba returns to Tucson for the screening, joining Asif Ahmed and Michael Welch for a Q&A following the film.

About Rock Prophecies:

Imagine seeing bands like Led Zeppelin or the Rolling Stones long before they became famous. Legendary rock photographer Robert Knight did just that, and has the photos to prove it. ROCK PROPHECIES explores Robert’s amazing career and follows him on his quest to help the bands of today become the rock legends of tomorrow, whether promoting Panic at the Disco before anybody has heard of them, or convincing Aussie band Sick Puppies to sell everything and move to the United States. When Robert stumbles upon Tyler Dow Bryant – a 16-year old guitar phenom from Texas – he’s convinced he may have found the next Stevie Ray Vaughan. Robert risks his reputation and career and takes a chance on Tyler. The two then set off on an unbelievable journey to take their own shot at making history. About Lost Dream:

Two college students, Perry and Giovanni, develop a delicate friendship based on their mutual suicidal behavior. Perry (Michael Welch, Twilight), the son of a corrupt Congressman, is tormented by his position in society. Giovanni (Shaun Sipos, Melrose Place 2009), distraught by a troubled childhood, has lost his desire to live. Together, they challenge each other's existence in search of salvation.
